

THE WORKS OF LIFE MAGAZINE PHOTOGRAPHER, ANDREAS FEININGER IN CHERRY CREEK NORTH

DENVER – November 1, 2006 – GALLERY M in Cherry Creek North, as an authorized LIFE gallery of photography, will host a collection of photographic works by LIFE Magazine photographer, Andreas Feininger to help celebrate the gallery's tenth-year celebration.

Feininger (1906 – 1999), who became a member of the LIFE magazine staff in 1943, dreamed of being a scientist, trained to be an architect, yet elected to set his sights on photography and made it his passion. Although he traveled worldwide, it was New York City that really was the lure for his lens. He once said, “he grew to love all aspects of New York, its buildings, its people, its cars and traffic jams, its confusion and its ugliness. The city is a living organism: dynamic, sometimes violent and even brutal.”

In the time Feininger was with LIFE magazine, he completed more than 430 assignments in 20 years. The works that will be available at GALLERY M are a rare sampling of his passion and some are the last signed editions of the photos.

The collection, “From River to Road,” includes vintage as well as modern limited-edition gelatin silver prints including a group of signed and rare images that once they are sold will be the last of the signed editions.

A champagne reception and special showing of Feininger's works is scheduled for Friday, November 10 from 5:30 – 8:00. It is requested, that those interested in viewing the collection at the reception please RSVP at 303-331-8400 or go to gallerym.com. The show will continue through January 31, 2007. GALLERY M is located in Cherry Creek North at 2830 E. Third Ave. (between Fillmore and Detroit).
