

“H2O”

Photographer Howard Schatz selects Cherry Creek North gallery for world debut

DENVER – September 17, 2007 – Howard Schatz, known internationally for his pioneering technique with underwater photography as well as recognized for his sessions with celebrities, athletes, performers and dancers, and fashion luminaries, chose Cherry Creek North and GALLERY M for the his world debut of H2O: The Water World of Howard Schatz.

GALLERY M will host a special opening on October 5 with a champagne reception that is open to the public. The opening on Friday is from 6:00PM to 9:00PM. The show will run through January 31. In addition to his fine art photography the release coincides with Schatz’s debut of his 17th book, titled: “H2O.”

Schatz’ photographs are exhibited in museums and photography galleries internationally and are included in countless private collections worldwide. He has received international acclaim for his work. Although he is known in the photography world for capturing flawless subjects underwater, he is also known for his photographs of celebrities such as Mohamed Ali, Edie Falco, Stephon Marbury, Chevy Chase, Annika Sorenstam to name a few. Schatz has photographed more than 100 actors of theater, television and movies with a unique one-on-one improvisation.

Schatz is responsible for a number of editorial works which have been published in magazines worldwide, including Time, Sports Illustrated, Vogue, Life, GQ Italia, The New York Times Magazine and The New Yorker to name a few. He has appeared countless times on international television for the Today Show, Good Morning America, NPR, Fox Sports Network, and the Discovery Channel and appeared widely on European television.

His scope of his work is recognizable. In fact, he has made extraordinary images for such advertising clients as Escada, Sergio Tacchini, Nike, Reebok, Wolford, Etienne Aigner, Sony, Adidas, Finlandia Vodka, MGM Grand Hotel, Virgin Records, Pantene, Giorgio Armani, and Mercedes-Benz.

Those interested in attending the reception on October 5 are encouraged to RSVP at 303-331-8400 or gallerym.com. GALLERY M is located at 2830 E. Third Ave. (between Fillmore and Detroit).

Media Contact: Jackie Brown-Griggs 720-272-4090

###